

Study on UN budget and financing issues

The study on budget and financing will be performed by Professor Francisco Sagasti and his research team. Through interviews and other information gathering work they are expected to conclude a report identifying the most urgent problems of budget and financing of the UN. Prof.Sagasti started his work in September and the report is due in December.

- Terms of Reference for the study