

The 4NI initiates study on mandate and roles

The study on mandate and roles in the UN Secretariat will be conducted by Ambassador Bo Göransson and his team. Göransson has been Sweden's ambassador to Kenya, as well as Director-General for the Swedish International Development Agency (SIDA). He started his work for the 4NI study in the beginning of October, and will report during December.

- Terms of Reference for the study on mandate and roles